Rules for Adults and Children

- Parents and Caregivers are reminded that they must supervise their child at all times
- It is important to notify us of your attendance with the person at the front desk, not only to record your attendance and note any missed sessions but to make a correct roll call in case of an emergency.
- Please remove your shoes to protect our equipment and little people.
- Bare feet are best for children when balancing or climbing. No socks, shoes or tights are allowed whilst on the equipment.
- No Running at Kindergym.
- Children should wear clothing that is comfortable and allows movement. Dresses for little girls are restrictive and can be dangerous.
- One person on the trampoline at all times.
- Share, take turns and have fun.

Illness

Please remember that illnesses can be contagious and easily spread amongst children. It would be appreciated if sick children (members or siblings) or Adults do not attend Kindergym sessions. Catch up sessions can be arranged.
